"Rosa 'Mary Delahunty' is a Large Flowered Hybrid Tea created in 1990 by Australian rose-breeder Ron Bell. She has fragrant, dark red blooms that are borne on long stems on a tall and healthy bush with abundant dark green foliage. This, possibly the best dark red rose bred in Australia being a gorgeous red with a classic rose scent.

The rose was named after a very popular Australian television newsreader and politician Mary Delahunty. The rose is on view in the Australian section of Morwell Rose Garden.
